

fun decorating

Curvy mirrors are feminine and elegant.

Blue Angel
by Benjamin
Moore

"Two young sisters share this bath now, but I think they'll like it even as they get older," says Jill Litner Kaplan, an interior designer in Boston, MA. "The colors are timeless, and there's tons of storage, which will be perfect for teenagers."

Blue Lucite pulls are a nice update
on white cabinets.

City Park
by Flavor
Paper

A dainty antique mirror makes a pretty centerpiece.

"Because it's small, you can be adventurous in a half bath," says Jean Alan, an interior designer in Chicago, IL. Look closely: Those are fire hydrants and parking meters on the damask wallpaper!

Mother-of-pearl
penny tiles sparkle
more than ceramic.